

With the development of the environmental management system according to ISO 14001: 2015, DEVISE ENGINEERING recognizes its responsibilities and obligations towards the environment and the people and is committed:

- to continuously improve its environmental performance,
- to comply with the environmental legislation
- to protect the environment and prevent pollution and
- to comply with all requirements arising from licensing and operation.

With the development of the environmental management system according to ISO 14001 which concerns:

- Design, manufacture, installation and maintenance of wastewater and water treatment equipment and systems, as well as other specialized industrial equipment

the company identifies all the environmental parameters related to its activities and develops procedures and programs in order to continuously improve its environmental performance. The company's environmental policy focuses on:

- Construction of projects with positive environmental impacts (wastewater and water treatment)
- Saving energy and resources by developing a system for monitoring the consumption of natural resources
- Management of the generated solid waste, giving priority to their separate collection and recycling.
- Ongoing briefing of the top management and staff on environmental issues

This company's environmental policy is published, communicated, implemented and supported by every employee in the company.

The administration